LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Tuesday, June 1, 1901

Paul Hemphill, Esq., of Chester, is in attendance upon court.

Dr. James DesPortes, of Ridgeway, spent Monday in town.

Mr. Palmer Stewart is home on a visit for a few days from Columbia.

Editor J. H. Buchanan spent Monday in town and honored the editorial sanctum with a call.

Mr. J. L. Mann, superintendent of the Florence graded schools, spent Friday in town.

It should have been noted in an earlier issue that the Fair-old Cotton Mills is again running.

Miss Grace Hinnant has returned home from South Carolina Co-Educational Institute for the holidays.

The establishment of an electric light system apart from water works is now being discussed.

Miss Annie F. Davis left Saturday morning to attend the commencement of the South Carolina College.

Mr. J. Q. Davis, Jr., left Saturday to attend the commencement exercises at the Presbyterian College for Women.

The appearance of the The-sian Hall has been much improved by the work that has been done on it recently.

The best variety of wheat for this section is the "Timrod." Those who have not planted it should give it a trial.

Mr. Ross Brown, who has been attending the South Carolina Co-educational Institute, has returned home for vacation.

Miss Maggie Aiken who has been visiting relatives in Pensacola, Florida, and other points, returned to Winnsboro last week.

The entertainment at the Thespian Hall this evening is for the benefit of Salem Church.

Dr. B. J. Quattlebaum has returned home, after attending the commencement exercises of the South Carolina Co-educational Institute.

The clerks seem to enjoy the early closing at 6 o'clock.

The members of the fire company will take note of the fact that six o'clock this afternoon is the time for the annual election of officers.

The election of a dispenser for Winnsboro is scheduled to take place Friday. A good deal of interest is being taken in the matter on the part of some.

The annual commencement german of the South Carolina College will take place at Shan-don Wednesday night. Several of the young people from Winns-boro will attend.

In the list of teachers for Mt. Zion for another year handed in to The News and Herald a few days ago the name of Mrs. M. L.
Dwight as music teacher should have been included.

The streets of Winnsboro are filling up with sweet girl graduates from the colleges throughout the State. The News and Herald welcomes them all home and wishes them a pleasant vacation.

Master Willie Doty and Mr.
S. D. Dunn have returned from Baltimore, where the former has been at Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment. His friends will be glad to know that he is much improved.

In the annual concert given by the pupils of the music department of the Presbyterian College for Women Friday night Miss Janie Flenniken and Miss Isabelle Douglass took a prominent part.

The Luke school will give an entertainment at the Thespian Hall this evening for the benefit of Salem Church. Admission—adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents.

Remember the entertainment that is to be given by Miss Martin's pupils at the Thespian Hall this (Tuesday) evening. This entertainment has been held at Luke, where it was a great success, and all who can should attend.

Misses Isabelle Douglass, Janie Flenniken, Marie McCants, Anna Beaty, Alice Walker and Gussie DesPortes will return from the Presbyterian College for Women this afternoon. The first two were members of the graduating class.

Fire Company Meeting.

The annual meeting of the fire company will be held this afternoon at 6 o'clock by order of the president. This is the meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year and a full attendance is desired.

Not a Snake Story.

Sunday evening at Mr. R. C.
Stevenson's there was shot a snake that was 7 feet long, 6 inches in circumference, and that weighed four pounds and two ounces. It was a chicken snake, and in the few days previous to its death had eaten some forty or more little chickens.

Thespian Hall, this evening at 8:30 o'clock should be filled with a large audience to be entertained by the Luke school children in behalf of Salem Church.

A Narrow Escape.

Saturday, Mr. Hancock, a gentleman who lives in the western section of the county, came very near having a serious accident.
While driving through town about three o'clock, his horse became frightened and ran away. On attempting to stop the horse, the buggy was turned very suddenly and Mr. Hancock was thrown very violently to the ground, bruising his face and head considerably. When first picked up he was unconscious, but Dr.
Hanahan and Dr. Lindsay soon dressed his wounds and relieved him a great deal. Although painful, this was a very narrow escape, as Mr. Hancock is about seventy-five years of age.

Old Maid's Convention.

"What is meant by the 'Old Maids Convention' that is to be held here June 18th is a question?" that is being asked by many. Some even want to know if it means that there is going to be a convention of all of the old maids of the State. The editor of The News and Herald is at a full loss to know what is to take place that night. But from an account of such a convention that has just been held in Union under the direction of the same young lady that is to have control of the convention that is to be held here, he would infer that there is a rich treat in store for the people of Winnsboro. Be sure that you know fully what the Old Maids Convention is, and the surest way to get this information is to attend.

Death of Miss Belle Cathcart.

Miss Belle Cathcart died Thursday night about 9 o'clock. For several weeks she had been quite sick and the end was not unexpected.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cathcart, who with a sister and two brothers, survive her. For several years she was a teacher at Mt. Zion College, and has also taught successfully at different places in the county.

The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family in their affliction.
The funeral services took place at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church Friday afternoon, and the following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. J. W.
Hanahan, J. E. Coan, T. H.
Ketchin, R. C. Gooding, A. W.
Brown and W. A. Beaty.

I Know One Sure Remedy for an obstinate cold. Its name is Piny-Balsam.

New Advertisements.

ter & Co.

Business Notices.

Fresh vaccine points and shields at The Obeur Drug Co.'s.

The leading hotels of every city are using W. S. Forces & Co.'s cebrated Montebello Hams, which are mild cured. House-keepers everywhere would do well to call on their grocers for these hams. Their Montebellos are the leading brand on the market. Every package of it is guaranteed to be strictly pure and to contain nothing but hog fat.

Bids Wanted.

Bids are wanted for building an extension to the Methodist parsonage in Winnsboro. Specifications can be had at The News and Herald office. Bids must be in by the 13th of June.

Salem Church Entertainment.

This evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Thespian Hall Miss Anna Lou Martin's school will give a delightful entertainment in the interest of Salem church. The charge to adults will be 25 cents, and to the children 10 cents. A full attendance is desired. Winns-boro should give this entertainment a good audience.

Old Maids to Meet.

All of the young ladies that are to take part in the Old Maids Convention are requested to assemble at the reading room at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening.
Miss McGhee, who is to have this in charge, will be present and will take the first steps towards organizing the convention.
These conventions are very popular and have been very successful under Miss McGhee's management in different towns of the State, and a rare treat is in store for those who attend this entertainment, which will take place on the 18th inst.

It should be remembered that this entertainment will be given for the benefit of the reading room and should be largely patronized by the people.

Tickets for the entertainment this evening for sale at McMaster Co.'s and at Jno. H. McMaster & Co.'s.

A Sunday Shooting.

Sunday evening as Rev. E. P.
Taylor and his wife were going to the Greenbrier church they heard two pistol shots directly behind them. On turning around a man ran out from the bushes and shot again at the parties in the buggy that was just behind them. He then fled. An investigation developed the fact that the woman had received a severe wound in the arm and that the man was seriously wounded, having been shot in the back and leg.
It is not thought that he will live.

The man who did the shooting was Walter Brice. The woman shot was Brice's wife. The man who is now in such a critical condition is Will Moore, of Blythewood, who seems from the circumstances to have superseded Brice in his wife's affections.
Brice evidently meant to kill both his wife and her lover. He has come in and surrendered to the sheriff.
